I make full use of and value the opportunities I am given to improve and manage my learning and, in turn, I can help to encourage learning and confidence in others. HWB11a

I will be able to be nice, even when I'm in a mood

I will be trying my best to get on with people all the time

I will be more confident

When I am finding it hard and I feel there is a chance I will lose it, I will be able to ask someone for help to talk things through.

① Tue Sep 10 2013: I felt I was a 5 for my target.

For my first time doing my target I think that I am a 5. I know I am a five and not a 6 because if I was a 6 I would be able to get on with people in my groups in class. Instead I just get into arguments. I don't get into arguments much in English. I am in a good group there, they are nice to me and understand sometimes when I get angry and they just leave me alone to calm down.

When I'm finished working through this with my worker, I would like to be an 8. An 8 for me would be...

I would still be able to be nice, even when I'm in a mood
I would be trying my best to get on with people all the time
I would be more confident

When I was finding it hard and I felt there was a chance I would lose it, I would be able to ask someone for help to talk things through.
